

Prostate Gathering in the Southern Cascade Mountains

The Sixth Annual Jan Zlotnick Memorial, August 8-13, 2021

Lake Siskiyou, Mt Shasta, California

Thank you for your interest in the Sixth Annual Jan Zlotnick Memorial Prostate Gathering. This year's Gathering will take place in the Mt Shasta area close to Lake Siskiyou in the Southern Cascade Mountains of Northern California. Due to Covid-19 we will be adhering to social distancing, face mask usage and other intelligent safety strategies to keep everyone safe. A Covid-19 vaccination will be required to participate. My name is Ken Malik. I am the founder and executive director of the PAF and this year's group leader. I am also a prostate cancer veteran of twenty-six years. Please visit www.prostateawarenessfoundation.org to learn more about the PAF. The foundation is a not for profit 501(c) (3) corporation (#31-1633278). All of the PAF services are provided free of charge and include: regular monthly discussion and support group meetings on-line on Zoom, a mentor program and a "Sustainable Prostate Blog" that provides regular tips on men's health issues and free consulting services providing men and their families with patient driven information.

This year's Gathering will include prostate cancer veterans, their family members and those interested in learning more about prostate health. This is gourmet car camping at its finest. (A limited number of cabins are available at additional cost, please contact Ken if you are interested.) We will enjoy healthy prostate friendly homemade meals in camp. There will be three venues each day: an easy hike for the less physically active, a more aggressive hike for those in good shape and plenty of sightseeing available for those just wanting to relax and take in the ambiance. This is a great way to get or stay in shape while sharing the camaraderie of those with similar health interests. Past participants have ranged in age from 15 to 76. As always, women are welcome and encouraged to participate. A prostate friendly menu will be served to all participants. There will be daily discussions on prostate and other health issues on the trail and around the campfire.

We hope you will give serious consideration to taking part in this year's Gathering. We have room for up to 18 participants. We need your commitment no later than July 22th to best plan logistics. This will be a first come first served event with a great deal of interest, so please sign up early to reserve your place. We would love to have you join us on this memorable gathering.

If you have not visited the Mt Shasta area you are in for a treat. Set in an alpine paradise At 3,500', Lake Siskiyou has great weather conditions both night and day. We have two very large campsites that we have rented in the past. Practicing social distance should be no problem.

Mt Shasta was one of Jan Zlotnick's favorite places. As you may know, he passed away at the end of 2014 from advanced prostate cancer. Jan was a friend and mentor to so many of us at the PAF. After fighting prostate cancer for over 20 years he passed away from prostate cancer in 2014. We honor his memory each year with the Annual Prostate Gathering.

The goals of the Gathering include: increase awareness about prostate health issues and how to deal with them pro-actively, raise critically needed funds for the PAF's ongoing outreach and education programs and to inspire men and their families dealing with this epidemic affliction with hope. You as a participant will take part in all four components of the PAF protocol for a healthy prostate: A prostate friendly diet, regular exercise, stress management and a zest for life.

APPROVAL POLICY: All potential participants will need to have a telephone interview with Ken Malik, the Gathering leader. This will ensure the safety and integrity of the Gathering. This interview will also give you an opportunity to ask any questions you may have. If you have participated in a prior PAF Prostate Gathering or Prostate Cancer Climb the approval process is waived.

EQUIPMENT: The weather in the High Country can change rapidly. August has historically had some of the best weather conditions, but weather is always unpredictable in the mountains. See the attached equipment list for a concise list of things you will need.

ACCOMMODATIONS: We will be staying at Lake Siskiyou Campgrounds. There are bathrooms with hot showers, a camp store, laundry and a large lake with water craft rentals available. This is tent camping at its best. If you do not have a tent please let us know, we have loaner tents available. You will need your own sleeping bag and air mattress or cot. A limited amount of cabins are available for rent, please contact Lake Siskiyou at 530-926-2618 for details.

Pre and Post Gathering Accommodations in San Francisco: If you are traveling in from out of town and would like to stay in San Francisco we suggest the Ocean Park Motel. Please call Mark at the Ocean Park Motel at 415-566-702 and mention the Prostate Awareness Foundation. The Ocean Park Motel is a funky, clean Art Deco motel within walking distance of the ocean, Zoo and public transportation. The rooms are the most reasonable we have found in San Francisco.

TRANSPORTATION: You can bring your own vehicle or possibly ride share with someone. We can also chip in and rent a large van if there is enough interest. Please let Ken know how you plan to get there.

ITINERARY: You can decide each day between a leisurely day or one filled with more strenuous activities. Come for the duration or just for a day or two. Preference will be given to those staying for the entire gathering. Please plan on leaving early for camp on Sunday, August 8th. We will break camp and head for home on Friday the 13th. Hikes will include: Castle Crags, the McCloud River water falls, Black Butte, Mt Shasta and Mt Eddy.

Equipment List

Conditions can change rapidly in the mountains. When planning your clothing needs, think about dressing in layers. We will be camping at 3,500' and some of us may reach altitudes as high as 9,000' during day time hikes. The temperatures can change dramatically in the mountains from early morning, through the day and into the evening. Expect temperatures as warm as the high 50's at night. A freezing cold night is unlikely, but not impossible. Expect day time temperatures to be usually in the 80's but we've seen it as high as 95 and as low as 50. Thunderstorms can come in in the afternoons at altitude, be prepared.

Sleeping Bag - Down or synthetic rated to at least 30 degrees.

Sleeping Bag Liner - Silk. (optional, but cozy)

Hiking boots - High top hiking boots with good ankle support are encouraged. If you're planning on new boots, get them now and break them in.

Casual boots or shoes - For relaxing around the camp after a long day on the trail.

Head Lamp & extra batteries. A smart way to get around in the dark.

Daypack - Large enough to pack a lunch, 1 to 2 liters of water, some clothes for weather changes, snacks and incidentals you need for the day.

Hiking Poles - Optional, but highly recommended for hiking safety.

Long underwear - Poly or wool is the best. Just in case it gets cold in the evening.

Sweaters & or sweat shirts - consider a light and a heavy one.

Water Repellent Wind Breaker - Thunder showers are always an afternoon possibility in the mountains, so are windy conditions, especially at higher elevations.

Wind & Waterproof Pants - Same as above

Parka - A down jacket with hood is a great asset if the evenings get cool

Gloves - Keep those fingers warm in the night and early morning.

Face Mask: for use when required on the trail to guard against Covid-19 spread.

Socks - The new wool hiking socks are comfortable and user friendly.

Hats - 2 are suggested. One with a brim to shield the sun, the second: a warm hat for the evenings and cooler mornings.

Bandana - to save your face from the wind and sun.

Sun Glasses: The sun is very bright at altitude, plan accordingly

Sun Screen - Bring at least a 30 just to be safe

Lip Baum - High altitude sun and wind can be severe

Water Bottles - at least 2 bottles of 1 liter each or a hydration system.

First Aid Kit - a small one to meet emergency situations. PAF will bring a complete medical kit along.

Shoe Laces - an extra pair is optional but can come in handy.

Towels: Consider bringing two. A small, synthetic, quick drying towel is recommended for the trail. A bigger towel for swimming and showering.

Gaiters: Optional but good for keeping scree and gravel out of your boots.

Bathing Suit: There are opportunities to swim.

Tent: We will be tent camping. Bring your own tent or you can borrow one of PAF's. We have a couple of extras. Please let Ken know your plan.

Camp Chair: (optional but handy) There are multiple picnic tables at our group site but a comfortable camp chair is a luxury.

Mandatory: Positive attitude, patience and a good sense of humor
